

PROOF OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

International Exchange Students

The Department of Homeland Security and Central Washington University require verification of adequate finances from applicants with or applying for J1 visas. Tuition and mandatory fees are covered by the exchange agreement, but students must be prepared to pay for living expenses, books and supplies, course specific fees, personal expenses, and/or any fines that they may accrue. All expenses must be paid by the 7th day of each quarter. If students do not pay the required funds indicated below, CWU must notify the Department of Homeland Security that the student has failed to meet the requirements for an exchange student visa.
