

CENTRAL WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY- CONDITIONS OF AWARDS

Financial aid awards are contingent upon your eligibility at the time of disbursement. To receive financial assistance, you will need to comply with the following conditions. If you have questions or find that you cannot comply with these conditions, please contact the CWU Financial Aid Office.

- High School Completion: You must provide your final high school transcripts to the CWU Office of Admissions before your financial aid can disburse. This includes federal, state, and institutional aid.
- Repayments and Defaults: You must not owe a repayment of any federal/state aid or in default with Federal Loans.
- Outside resources: Per federal regulation you are required to report all outside grants, scholarships and resources to the financial aid office. Your aid may be reduced in the case of an over award.
- Receive Aid from Only One School: You must not receive aid at another school while receiving aid from CWU.
- Participation: Students must have documented attendance and participated in courses before aid can be disbursed. To ensure timely disbursement, students must participate in an academic related activity before the add/drop period each quarter.
- Degree Program: You must be admitted to CWU as a degree-seeking student in an eligible program.
- Aid Adjustments for Part-Time Enrollment: Aid will be prorated or reduced if you are not enrolled full time (12 or more credits for undergraduates, 10 or more credits for graduates), as of the end of the census day each term ("add/drop").
- Your Contact Information: You must keep your address, phone number, and email current in MyCWU.
- Aid Eligibility: Financial Aid is awarded based on current information in the system, but eligibility must be reviewed and confirmed before awarding and disbursing aid. If a student's eligibility changes before they are awarded, or before aid has disbursed, (i.e. grade change, SAP status, reduction in enrollment) then aid will be adjusted/canceled to reflect eligibility. It is up to the student to meet eligibility requirements.
- Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP): You must meet eligibility requirements for the type of aid you are receiving each quarter. Withdrawals, Incompletes, and failing grades may result in suspension of financial aid. Students should check their progress in their MyCWU dashboard at the end of each quarter and will be notified of annual SAP status at the end of each term. However, it is best to contact the Financial Aid Office if you have had an unsuccessful quarter. Students may be eligible to petition for suspended financial aid to be reinstated. Review the CWU SAP webpage for more information.
 - All courses used to determine enrollment status and eligibility for financial aid must be required for the student's eligible degree program. Financial aid cannot be awarded for coursework that is not required to complete the degree, including additional majors, minors, or elective coursework beyond degree requirements.
- Federal and state grant programs are limited to students pursuing their first bachelor's degree. Once a student has completed all degree requirements for their undergraduate program, they are no longer eligible for undergraduate grant funding, including Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG, Washington College Grant, College Bound Scholarship, and Passport to College. Students pursuing double majors must complete both majors simultaneously prior to the SAP review period. Students are responsible for working with their academic advisor and the Office of Financial Aid to confirm continued eligibility for financial aid.
- Dropping or Withdrawing: Always contact Financial Aid before withdrawing from courses to determine how it will affect your current and future financial aid. Review our Return of Funds policy for more information.
- Complete an Aid Application Each Year: You must complete a new FAFSA or WASFA application for each academic year you wish to receive aid. New applications are generally available beginning October 1st each year.
- Federal Loans require a least half-time enrollment.
 - Undergraduates & Post Baccalaureate: 6 or more credits per quarter. They prorated between 6-11 credits.

- Graduates: 5 or more credits above 500 level per quarter. They are prorated between 5-9 credits.
- Beginning July 1, 2026, federal loans will be prorated (reduced) if students are not full time.
- Central Washington University reserves the right to reduce, cancel, or revise your award in accordance with applicable state, federal and institutional policies and guidelines or the availability of funds.

WARNING: Any person who knowingly makes a false statement or a misrepresentation on forms used to apply for assistance shall be subject to a fine of not more than $20,000 and sent to prison or both per the U.S. Code, HEA of 1965.

WASHINGTON STATE AID- CONDITIONS OF AWARDS

By accepting state financial aid, you agree to the conditions listed below. If you have questions or find that you cannot comply with these conditions, please contact the Financial Aid Office.

- You meet the requirements for Washington State residency.
- You do not owe a repayment to any state grant or scholarship nor are you in default on a state student loan.
- You must be enrolled in an eligible program and not be pursuing a degree in theology.
- If you hold a bachelor's degree or the foreign equivalent, you are not eligible to receive state grant funds.
- If you do not attend or if you withdraw from your classes, you may owe a repayment of all or part of any state funds that you received.
- You must maintain the academic progress standards established by your institution in order to receive additional state aid.
- There could be other circumstances that would require a repayment or reduction in your current award amounts.
- You must meet all eligibility requirements for the state aid program(s) awarded.
- The offer of this financial assistance is subject to and conditioned upon the availability of funds. Washington Student Achievement Council (WSAC) and the institution through which the grant, scholarship, or work study is awarded, reserve the right to withdraw, reduce, or modify the awards due to funding limitations or due to changes in circumstances which affect your eligibility for the programs(s).
- If I fail to cash my check containing state funds or pick up any remaining funds by the close of the academic year, the funds shall be returned to the program at WSAC and treated as funds declined by me.

The State of Washington offers financial assistance to help support the educational expenses of WA residents. Visit www.opportunitypathways.wa.gov for more information about financial aid, scholarships, work study, and student loans.

You may choose to voluntarily make financial contributions to WSAC in recognition of the assistance that you received. All voluntary contributions will be used to provide financial assistance to other students. Please contact finaid@wsac.wa.gov for more information.

Central Washington University reserves the right to reduce, cancel, or revise your award in accordance with applicable state, federal and institutional policies and guidelines or the availability of funds.

WARNING: Any person who knowingly makes a false statement or a misrepresentation on forms used to apply for assistance shall be subject to a fine of not more than $20,000 and sent to prison or both per the U.S. Code, HEA of 1965.

AWARD CONDITIONS

Award Name	Conditions
Athletic Dept Housing Waiver	The Housing Athletic Award is offered to students participating in an approved CWU athletic program. The waiver will be applied to all or part of your University Housing and Dining charges. To receive the waiver, you must maintain CWU GPA and Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements. More information can be found online at http://www.cwu.edu/housing/

WSAC WAVE	The Washington Award for Vocational Excellence (WAVE) Grant is gift aid provided by the State of Washington. You must meet State SAP requirements, enroll full-time, and maintain a minimum quarterly GPA of 3.00 to receive the award each term. This award may be reduced or canceled if you received another gift aid that would cause an over-award.
WUE Border County	The Border County Western Undergraduate Exchange

Waiver (WUE) is for residents of Benewah, Bonner, Boundary, Kootenai, Latah, or Nez Perce counties in Idaho or Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Gilliam, Hood River, Morrow, Multnomah, Sherman, Umatilla, Union, Wallowa, Wasco, or Washington counties in Oregon. You must meet the following conditions to participate in the Border WUE program: Enrolled before Fall 2025, maintain SAP eligibility, and continuous full-time enrollment. The award is renewable up to 12 quarters and maintain a permanent address in an eligible county. The waiver is intended to cover the differential between in state and out-of-state tuition charges and can be reduced or cancelled if total tuition gift aid exceeds this amount. Please speak to a Financial Aid counselor before accepting if you are considering Washington residency. Please see additional information at <https://www.cwu.edu/scholarships/WUE>
