- Hauke Harfst – This week was the first Student Academic Senate meeting, however we were not able to appoint senators to the executive board because not enough seats are filled on SAS yet.

Senators Approved:

- Lacy Myers - Representing
 - Ashley Garcia - Representing
 - Michael Finger - Representing
- Olivia Durham – Spoke about the ESC block party successful turn out estimated at 700 people. Employees currently working on project for “My Costume is Not Consent”.
 - Rene Mahnke – With the help of John most seats were filled on the Recreation Advisory Committee and the Student Union Advisory committee. Inviting everyone to come to Ellensburg Radio Day Parade. Continuously planning the Wellington Wildfire as well as the Wildcat statue initiation ceremony.
 - Nina Caldwell – This week, Monday, started vote week for the Office of Legislative Affairs, tonight we will end the week with the Donkey vs. Elephant match up on the East Patio from 7pm to 9pm We will have a voting booth on the Patio from 10am until 3pm so you can have a say in who you want to win. We have made are goal for voter reg. with over 430 people, and counting, registered! The deadline to register is Oct. 5th so come and see me before then. We had three six week programs all over campus called Cookies and the Capital this week with the biggest turnout from Kamola Hall. We also had are first WSA chapter meeting in which we talk about building a leadership committee within the chapter. This would be made up of student from clubs and ESC groups. This would help our build a more diverse student voice within the chapter so we can better serve all students in Olympia. Also I met with Kim in the CLCE on the Elections Assistance Center a.k.a. CWU Votes which will be happening Nov. 3 in SURC 137 A&B from 8am to 8pm and we will be finalizing the details in the next couple weeks. Next week I will be working with my staff on our program ideas for the rest of the quarter as well as starting to look at our legislative agenda possible items.
 - Ryan Anderson – Represented the students of CWU at the Academic Student Life meeting. Also shared that we know there is some form of student government that started at least as early as 2009.
