During their academic studies, international students on F-1 visas may participate in Curricular Practical Training (CPT).

What employers need to know:

- International students may participate in off-campus or employment opportunities, referred to as Curricular Practical Training (CPT), by : 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(f)(10)(i).
- Employment under CPT must be required and/or related to the student’s field of study.
- Employment under CPT may be paid or unpaid. If paid, there is no maximum salary. If unpaid, the position should be an unpaid position. Employers cannot withhold payment because of the student’s immigration status.
- Central Washington University’s Office of International Studies and Programs (OISP) verifies whether a student meets the eligibility requirements. Their work permit is the notation and signature on page 3 of their I-20.
- Authorization to begin employment under CPT may be granted and renewed by the OISP.
- Extension may be authorized by the OISP on a quarter-by-quarter basis.
- Authorization can typically be granted within two days of submission of the learning agreement (if the student is receiving credit).
- Authorization can typically be granted within one week of receiving the required hire information from the employer (see sample letter below). The letter must include the following:
  - Company’s name and address
  - Number of hours per week
  - Start and end dates
- Employment must be part-time (20 hours per week or fewer) when the student is enrolled in classes. Full time CPT may be requested during breaks and vacations, but may impact the student’s ability to participate in OPT later.
- Tax information for earned income can be found in Chapter 8 of Internal Revenue Services Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens and in Section 940 of Social Security Administration Publication no. 65-008, Social Security Handbook.

Please contact Central Washington University’s OISP for any questions or concerns: isa@cwu.edu or (509)963-3614.
