	*CHECK ONE (1) SPECIALTY:
	Foods and Nutrition		FONU		FONUPRE
	Dietetics		NUDI

The Dietetics specialization requires 51-53 credits with a 3.0 gpa for these courses before full admission. Typically, dietetic students will begin in the Foods and Nutrition specialization. Pre-dietetic students are expected to meet with their advisor early in their academic program.

It is the responsibility of the student to meet with their advisor to change their status from pre-major to full-major. Students wishing to be admitted to the dietetics specialization must fill out the Dietetics Application Form and bring a copy of their most current transcripts
