

Scholarships in History Apply Now!

Why Should I Apply?

Scholarships in History help students cover tuition and fees and serve to distinguish a student in their career. It is worth taking time to apply. Students can receive more than one scholarship as long as the combined awards don't exceed the cost of attendance. A scholarship may reduce loans or replace a restricted tuition waiver.

Scholarship Award Amounts

Scholarship amounts range from $3,500 to $10,000. A Study Abroad Scholarship that is reimbursed is awarded for $500.

Application Deadlines

Scholarship applications are accepted from November 1, 2020 until March 1, 2021. Decisions will be made in May 2021.

About History Scholarships

To Apply and for More Information:

Visit Scholarship Central

www.cwu.edu/scholarships/scholarship-central
New and returning CWU students, as well as new applicants, are eligible to complete the online Scholarship Central application for CWU Foundation and Departmental scholarships.

For any questions, please email:
www.cwu.edu/history

Available Scholarships for 2021:

Barto Scholarship

Qualifications:

- Financial Need (FAFSA/WASFA) application
- History Major
- US Citizen
- 3.0 GPA or higher

*Additionally, requires a 500-word essay (see scholarship Web site)

Paul E. LeRoy History Scholarship

Qualifications:

- History Major
- 3.0 GPA or higher

*Additionally, requires a one-page essay; unofficial CWU transcripts; names of three references; list of history courses and grades; list of honors and awards.

Also check out: the Nancy and Ben Remak History Scholarship, Deloris and Rolland Dewing Scholarship, Sam R. & Mary B. Mohler Scholarship.