CWU Celebrates International Education Week

International Education Week

International Education Week (IEW) is an opportunity to celebrate the benefits of international education and intercultural exchange worldwide. This joint initiative of the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Education is part of an effort to promote programs that prepare US-Americans for a global environment and ...

Click here to read more

CWU Resumes Education Abroad

Beginning in January 2022, CWU will officially resume education abroad activities for the first time since they were halted in April 2020 as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. Student interest in education abroad has persisted throughout the pandemic, and the Office of International ...

Click here to read more two universities and provide students with academic and cultural experiences, Central Washington University (CWU) and Tokyo Gakugei ...

Click here to read more

When the first WorldCat Connections online program took place in August of 2020, it consisted of one course with 11 students drawn from two of UESL’s ...

Click here to read more

In EDLT 184, students have been learning about global literacy. As part of this journey, the students were given partners who are studying English online through the Asia ...

Click here to read more

Since the end of September, 17 Takushoku University students have been attending a weekly American ...

Click here to read more

After an almost two-year hiatus caused by the pandemic, the UESL program will again host international students at CWU for its in-person intensive English ...

Click here to read more

In-person Program Resumes Spring 2022