Liberal Studies, BA Large Plan
Online Program

Program Overview
The College of Arts and Humanities’ BA, Liberal Studies large plan (65 cr) is attractive in a variety of situations and academic needs. The program is designed for students whose primary interest lies in a variety of areas and requires interdepartmental course selections, which are not possible within single academic programs or established curricula. The program offers students the opportunity to devise an approved, coherent program of study from across the institution, fulfilling academic goals and career objectives.
