

Welcome and thank you for administering this Noel-Levitz survey on your campus. This HTML report contains the results of the survey that was administered on your campus.

You will want to use the drop down menu located in the upper right corner of this page to navigate to the individual reports included in this document. You can simply select the report page you want to review. Please note that this report is interactive; you can sort on the individual columns to view the data in multiple ways. You can also print from this document.

Please refer to the Interpretive Guide, delivered as a PDF document along with your HTML results, for additional direction on reviewing and using your data results. The Help Screen in this document will also provide guidance.

This report is an HTML document, not a link to a Web site. You will want to save the document to a safe location on your own computer. The report is written in Web HTML language and in order for the graphics to appear, you will need to have a live connection to the Internet. If you are working off-line, the functionality of the report will still be in place, but the graphics will not appear.

You can easily distribute the results as an attachment to an email or post the document to your own campus Web site. You may want to consider ordering additional reports from Noel-Levitz to review your data set in multiple ways. For more information on the options and the applicable fees, or with any questions on how to review your results, please contact Noel-Levitz at 800-876-1117 or at info@noellevitz.com.
