Central Washington University Music Department continues to excel because of generous contributions from alumni, parents, and friends. While there are many ways to offer support that will best meet your philanthropy goals, we invite you to join us in celebrating the 125th anniversary of our beloved CWU by giving a $125 to support our students. This support will allow us to continue to provide top-tier teaching and training for our students. For more information on how to achieve your giving goals, visit us at www.cwu.edu/give.

Thank you for all that you do to advance Central’s commitment to excellence and connecting our world through music.

presents:

Ignacio Prego
Guest Harpsichordist

Jerilyn S. McIntyre Music Building Recital Hall
Tuesday, October 17, 2017
7:00 PM
Spanish Harpsichordist, Ignacio Prego, performs Bach’s Goldberg Variations on a Thomas and Barbara Wolf, double-manual harpsichord.

First published in 1741, the work is considered to be one of the most virtuosic pieces of its time and one of the most important examples of variation form. “One of the Spanish musicians with most projection and versatility in the classic music scene.” — Diario El Mundo. First Prize winner at the 2012 Westfield International Harpsichord Competition, Mr. Prego has been described by the newspaper El Mundo as “…one of the most versatile Spanish musicians in the Classical scene…”

He has performed in major cities in the USA, China, Japan, Italy, Spain, Costa Rica, Chile, Holland, Portugal, Italy, Romania, Peru, Bolivia, and Canada, including important venues such as the National Gallery of Arts in Washington, D.C., the National Center for the Performing Arts in Beijing, the National Auditorium in Madrid, the Esplanade in Singapore and the Alice Tully Hall at Lincoln Center in New York.
