Central Washington University Music Department continues to excel because of generous contributions from alumni, parents, and friends. While there are many ways to offer support that will best meet your philanthropy goals, we invite you to join us in celebrating the 125th anniversary of our stellar CWU Music Department by giving $125 to support our students. This support will allow us to continue to provide top-tier teaching and training for our students. For more information on how to achieve your giving goals, visit us at www.cwu.edu/give.

Thank you for all that you do to advance Central’s commitment to excellence and connecting our world through music.

7:00 PM
While in Boston he won first place in the Aaron Richmond Piano Competition, performed live on Boston Public Radio, and gave recitals at the Gardner Museum, Worcester Art Museum, and Goethe Institute. International orchestral performances include appearances with the Berlin Chamber Orchestra, the Armenian Philharmonic Orchestra, and the Panevezys Chamber Orchestra in Lithuania.

He has performed as soloist in Cairo and Alexandria, Egypt, and has performed in Seoul, Korea, with the touring Odessa Philharmonic Orchestra from Ukraine. As a collaborative artist with violinist Alex Russell, Duane has performed at the Shanghai Conservatory of Music and The Central Conservatory of Music in Beijing, China, as well as appearances in Sweden, Australia, Singapore, Korea, Ukraine, Armenia, Canada, and numerous venues in the United States. MorningStar Music Publishers, Fred Bock Music, and Jubal House Music have published both instrumental and choral works by Duane which include chamber music, orchestral and choral arrangements, many based on American hymn tunes. Currently, Dr. Funderburk serves as Co-Director of Music at Lake Avenue Church in Pasadena, California, and composes for and performs with many musicians from the Los Angeles area. Duane also assists as collaborative pianist at Central Washington University in Ellensburg, Washington.

Dr. Funderburk holds a Bachelor of Music degree in piano performance from Seattle Pacific University, a Master of Music degree in piano performance from Boston University, and a Doctorate of Musical Arts degree from the University of Southern California in collaborative piano.

Duane Funderburk began his musical studies in the Pacific Northwest studying with Marcile Mack at Seattle Pacific University and Randolph Hokanson at the University of Washington. While in Seattle he performed chamber music with cellist Carter Enyeart and violist Alan Iglitzen, both members of the Philadelphia String Quartet. He has attended the Aspen Music Festival and the Tanglewood Institute where he studied with pianists Bela Nagy, Samuel Lipman, Ruth Laredo, and Edith Oppens.

Kairos

Kairos, violinist Carrie Rehkopf Michel and cellist John Michel, collaborate with world-renowned pianists in presenting concerts of the rich piano and strings repertoire. Kairos has performed in Italy, Taiwan, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Canada and across the United States. Collaborators include pianists Stephen Beus, Moli Chiang, Duane Funderburk, Eduard Zilberkant and Tatjana Rankovich, violinists Kathryn Votapek and David Perry, and violist Michelle Rahn.

To stimulate the imaginations of new audiences, Kairos also collaborates with other artists including choreographers Shauna Goddard Barger, Diane De Franco Browne & Jackie Kopcsak; storytellers Claudia Solti, Moon Hi Hanson & Gillian Coldsnow; and visual artists Rachel Hall Kirk & Mellasenah Nicole.

Recently Kairos has debuted the Youtube channel “KairosVR” which features 360degree videos of the Mendelssohn Trio in d with Stephen Beus.

Kairos holds the endowed chamber music residency at Central Washington University and Icicle Creek Center for the Arts.
