

Bachelor of Science (BS)

Interdisciplinary Studies—Social Sciences

CWU - Moses Lake

A University in Your Community

LEARN. DO. LIVE.

The BS Interdisciplinary Studies-Social Sciences (IDS) degree is for students who want to choose their courses according to individual professional/educational goals and interests. Students will create an approved program of study with their advisor, which fulfills their academic and career goals.

Persons earning this degree will find employment in a variety of occupations including human services, business, government and non-profit organizations. Many of our graduates complete advanced degrees in psychology, medicine, pharmacy, sociology, social work, business, library science, law, and political science.

Here is what one of our students had to say about the Interdisciplinary Studies-Social Sciences degree program:

“My advisor and course instructors challenged old ideals, fostered a learning environment of excellence, and responded with feedback to enhance my learning while in college. Because of this, I am prepared to pursue a career or seek a candidacy in a Master’s Program.”
