III. Land Acknowledgement -

Central Washington University acknowledges the people who have been on this land since time immemorial. The Ellensburg campus is on lands ceded by the Pshwanapum and other bands and tribes of the Yakama Nation in the Treaty of 1855. The Yakama people remain committed stewards of this land, cherishing it and protecting it, as instructed by elders through generations. We are honored and grateful to be here today on their traditional lands, and give thanks to the legacy of the original people, their lives, and their descendants.

We also recognize the histories of land theft, violence, erasure and oppression of Indigenous communities. It is not enough to only make an acknowledgement. We have a responsibility as occupants of these lands to hear the call to action made by Indigenous peoples, and to support their ongoing fight for sovereignty, equity, justice, healing, and the protection of land resources.

This land acknowledgment was provided by the CWU Diversity and Equity Center.

c. Senate Speaker

i. Swecey Day:

We are working to finalize what our service projects will be our hope is to have more than one project for students to go to in the morning. For the afternoon, we have three senators that are tentatively wanting to have their events during the afternoon activity. The burg and Dining will be in charge of the evening.

ii. Master Hood Coalition:

We are beginning to put a plan in place, we will be meeting this Thursday at 6 in the conference room. I have spoken to Ryan and Sam from the SURC team, and we are looking at possibly using the same layout from 2 years ago. I have a meeting with Provost Pease soon to clear up any confusion. The date is set for June 6th. We are going to be sending out an RSVP form hopefully after my meeting which the deadline will be May 1st.

iii. Joseph Pearson

He sent us out the detailed plan of what his cap program would look like, and after further clarification, he did provide that it would also include art and science classes. He has also offered to come speak to the Senate to provide further clarification.

iv. Radio Show

Kate has another training this week, and we will be sending out a sign-up genius link to everyone in the office to sign up for your timeslot to be on the ASCWU radio show.
