III. Land Acknowledgement -

Central Washington University acknowledges the people who have been on this land since time immemorial. The Ellensburg campus is on lands ceded by the Pshwanapum and other bands and tribes of the Yakama Nation in the Treaty of 1855. The Yakama people remain committed stewards of this land, cherishing it and protecting it, as instructed by elders through generations. We are honored and grateful to be here today on their traditional lands, and give thanks to the legacy of the original people, their lives, and their descendants.

We also recognize the histories of land theft, violence, erasure and oppression of Indigenous communities. It is not enough to only make an acknowledgement. We have a responsibility as occupants of these lands to hear the call to action made by Indigenous peoples, and to support their ongoing fight for sovereignty, equity, justice, healing, and the protection of land resources.

This land acknowledgment was provided by the CWU Diversity and Equity Center.

 - i. Swecey Day is undergoing planning, we have two confirmed service day projects, and one in the works at the butterfly gardens. Grace and I are working on putting a funding request for the dunk tank, which is priced at 1,300. We are looking at getting merchandise as well. Senators Delano, Marquez and Bridgewater will be holding events during Swecey Day.
 - ii. Massive shoutout to Senator Campbell for her Cozy Crochet and Crafts event, we had close to a 200 person turn out and was an amazing event. We have received a request to hold the event again, for it was really well liked by the students who attended.
 - iii. All the senators have begun planning their events, all of them are being scheduled for Spring Quarter. I want to work with publicity on creating a section in the Spring Hype for all the senator events.
 - iv. I have received confirmation from Christina Denison from the Douglas Honors College to serve as a counterpart for the new DHC senator position that we are working to create. The Senate will be discussing and voting on this position, which if passed, will come to the BOD next week.
 - v. President Cantu, Vice President, Senator Wyman and I are planning on meeting with Dean Rodrigo on the hooding ceremony to decide how we will move forward.
 - vi. We are finalizing an academic class module survey for students; this will be used to share with the Provost to decide what modules we want to have more of in following years. This survey will only be shared with students attending classes on the Ellensburg campus.
