III. Land Acknowledgement -

Central Washington University acknowledges the people who have been on this land since time immemorial. The Ellensburg campus is on lands ceded by the Pshwanapum and other bands and tribes of the Yakama Nation in the Treaty of 1855. The Yakama people remain committed stewards of this land, cherishing it and protecting it, as instructed by elders through generations. We are honored and grateful to be here today on their traditional lands, and give thanks to the legacy of the original people, their lives, and their descendants.

We also recognize the histories of land theft, violence, erasure and oppression of Indigenous communities. It is not enough to only make an acknowledgement. We have a responsibility as occupants of these lands to hear the call to action made by Indigenous peoples, and to support their ongoing fight for sovereignty, equity, justice, healing, and the protection of land resources.

This land acknowledgment was provided by the CWU Diversity and Equity Center.

As of right now, our primary locations for the service project will be at Brooklane and Wildcat farm, with the final location being the butterfly garden in front of Mitchell hall. I have a meeting soon with Lola, Jessica and Grace with the mom of the student who the butterfly garden was made to finalize details. Volunteer forms will be going out soon for the student body, and the ASCWU volunteer sign-up sheet has already gone out. Check in time will be at 9am at the wildcat statue for the service projects. If you are unavailable to help out, please let me know after the meeting, it is set for May 22nd.
 - ii. Senator Events
 1. I believe all of our senator events have been finalized, and aimed for spring quarter, so please come check them out and support our senators, they will be posted in the Hype Booklet. They have put in a lot of effort to put them together, Senator Jackson has a bingo night, Senator Holman has the lip sync battle, Senator Robb is hosting a water balloon fight, Senator Campbell is bringing back Cozy Crochet and Crafts, Senator Marquez is hosting a Karaoke Showdown during Sweeey Day, Senator Cordon is having a celebration for the veterans center, Senator Qadir is hosting a games around the globe, Senator Miron is hosting a lain music night, Senator Genzel will be running an art supplies drive, and Senator Wyman will be hosting a kite flying event. I also will be tabling next quarter for the different senator events to advertise them.

iii. Student Module survey

1. Senator Cordon and I, with the help of the Faculty Senate Chair, have completed a student module survey that we will be sending out at the beginning of Spring. This will be shared with the Provost and Faculty Senate and only to students taking classes here on the Ellensburg campus. It is to gauge what types of class modules students want to see more of in the future and will be given to the university administration when they discuss class modules. We want student feedback on this in order to make sure they are heard.

iv. Senate Meeting

1. Tonight is the final Senate meeting of the quarter, where several students interested in shadowing members of the senate will be in attendance as well as several guest speakers including Joseph Pearson on his new cap program, and President Wohlpart on the DOE's dear colleague's letter. Next quarter, our first meeting will be on April 7th, and will be led by Vice Speaker Cordon. Senators will also be voting on the awards given to their fellow senators at the Gala in May.

v. Among Us with ASCWU Senate & FGSO

1. I am hosting a collaboration event with FGSO on April 23rd in SURC 137 from 5-7, where we invite students to come and hang out with members of FGSO and ASCWU Senate and play among us. This event is open to all students.
