III. Land Acknowledgement

Central Washington University acknowledges the people who have been on this land since time immemorial. The Ellensburg campus is on lands ceded by the Pshwanapum and other bands and tribes of the Yakama Nation in the Treaty of 1855. The Yakama people remain committed stewards of this land, cherishing it and protecting it, as instructed by elders through generations. We are honored and grateful to be here today on their traditional lands, and give thanks to the legacy of the original people, their lives, and their descendants.

We also recognize the histories of land theft, violence, erasure and oppression of Indigenous communities. It is not enough to only make an acknowledgement. We have a responsibility as occupants of these lands to hear the call to action made by Indigenous peoples, and to support their ongoing fight for sovereignty, equity, justice, healing, and the protection of land resources.

This land acknowledgment was provided by the CWU Diversity and Equity Center.

- i. Swecey Day Success-
Swecey Day was a huge success, major shoutout to Campus Activities, Dining, SLICE, ASCWU and all of our volunteers! The Service Projects went great, and received great feedback afterwards, special shoutout to Jessica from SLICE for helping us organize those. The afternoon portion of the day was equally busy, with myself spending more time in the water than I think I did on the seat, major shoutout to Grace for helping us organize the activities, and the evening was super packed! Major Shoutout to 88.1 the Burg and Dining for helping us put on such an amazing evening event. Also shoutout to Senators Bridgewater and Marquez for their amazing events, and shoutout to Daniel and Nick for being part of the team all day in helping the event run smoothly from beginning to end. As much fun as it was, we would like to work with student life next year as the primary organizers for Swecey Day.
 - ii. Transition-
We are wrapping up transition protocols for the senate office, Aylin will be with me at Faculty Senate and my final meeting with the Provost this week to prepare her for the transition, most of my staff have completed their transition documents, and we are getting ready to post job postings for new senate staff soon. I've been working with Aylin on training to help her adjust into the role.
 - iii. Senator Positions-
We have also filled two senator positions for next year, I like to welcome Max Henyan as the next Senator for Sustainability, and Kayla Raasina as the next Senator of Disability Services. We are currently in the process of interviewing Senator at Large candidates as well as International Studies. We are still actively looking for students interested in serving as the next senators for: Athletics, Undergrad and Transfer Studies, ESC, and College of Business. I have also been working to create a document to give to the Board of Trustees regarding the recently approved ASCWU constitution change to change a Senator at Large position to a Senator of the Douglas Honors College. Two names have been recommended to Dr. Christina and I look forward to having them in ASCWU.

iv. Faculty Senate

I will be attending the final faculty senate meeting on June 4th to advocate for the padstone class due to the short hands of advisors to have students to take them. There has been recent talks of removing it from the gen eds, and I believe 184 is beneficial as it offers a unique approach to gen eds, in addition to hoping to advocate for the DHC to be able to no longer have to take it, as 184 is set up as a Seminar class, and all DHC classes are seminar and they have their own advisors, making them perfect to be exempt from it.
