New Business:

Alex Lee Introduces

❖ Facility Policy Changes

Alex: Dress code has gotten the most attention.

Michael: Survey says students need some kind of dress code

Annika: So, there hasn’t been any changes?

Alex: No

Michael: Elaborating on Inclusivity, all are welcomed and want everyone to feel comfortable.

Alex: also noticing trends such as crop tops and high wasted leggings etc..

Michael: this is a generic outline however it varies by different sectors.

Mick: Does the website show each specific dress code for each area of the gym?

Alex: If you look on

Michael: in the survey

Mickael: Can we send out the survey out again?

Michael: Freebie Friday to promote a new survey

Mickael: Proposed timeline for the timeline

Brett: Is there a

Tucker: Coming from the perspective of the front desk, there is a lot of complaints

Mickael: Any specific Dress Code complaints?

Tucker: Exposure of torso

Michael: Health department

Brett: If we don't have an issue then a survey is pointless in my opinion. If we know its torso then lets address it

Tucker: Cleaner Resistant

Michael: Also the culture of people not cleaning up after themselves

Alex: Telling the staff to clean down especially during busy hours

Alejandra: Sweaty matts

Tucker: Posting about cleaning matts

Matt: it takes 1 person,

Mick: A survey

Matt: Current thoughts on dress code

Annika: Survey can also lead to educating

Vote to send our survey

❖ Student Wages

Matt: Timeline roughly 30 student positions. Climbing

Correct Annika

Annika: I don't know

Michael: Supervisor

Matt: Will pay for qualifications but your wage will not go up. Structuring for merit raises down the road:

Michael: Consistency around the board

Mickael:

Tucker: Its great and will support students more.

Matt: With the new radios we can also call for help. Equal help and support

Vote for wage: 5-0-0
