- IX. New Business
 - a. Report backs
 - i. Finance & Supply Chain- They did not place first but they were the only school representing from the whole Westside. During our time there we were they did panel learning sessions as well as some networking.
 - ii. Lynwood Law & Justice- They went to Vancouver B.C.
 - b. New appointments- Sociology as well as Accounting have new representation
 - c. Sub committees-
 - d. Tuition waivers- We are looking for tuition waivers so we are able to get more of an active pool of participants. It would be reimbursement quarterly.
 - e. Elections- If you know anyone who is running for office please encourage them to do so.
- X. Issues & Concerns-
 - a. Philosophy department has an issue with LSATs and Law and Justice communicated that there is not much support throughout the school for students to be able to take LSATs.
 - b. Another issue that is going on is a Stats class that is required.

- c. CWU was asking S&A for $80,000 passed for Westside centers to have an advisor(s) paid for by students. They voted against it since students should not have to pay for advisors.
- d. University 101 is extremely ineffective. How do we make it effective?
