- MCC Awarded the Design Excellence Award by IIDA (International Interior Design Association) The project was voted by judges, among 30 projects submission, for the "Against All Odds" award. Judges remarked on the team's perseverance despite funding cuts at the state level and threats from the federal government to restrict university funding for 'exclusionary programming' provided by the center. The project team, including staff, faculty and students, came together to complete the work that students had been advocating for at the state level for over 10 years.
